The Glenview Times

Pizza and More

By Stephanie Johnso

Sweet Oregano Italian Restaurant is a welcome addition to the Glenview Shopping Center. The owner says that he named the restaurant after his favorite herb, but perhaps it is the heart-shaped leaves of the dark green oregano plant that best capture the spirit of the restaurant. All of the food here is made with love. In addition, Sweet Oregano's cooking features a fine variety of different Italian flavors. Each of the pizza and pasta dishes offers a delicate blend of fresh herbs such as basil, marjoram, thyme, parsley—and, of course, oregano!

The experience that this restaurant provides goes beyond the delicious food, though. When I visited, opera singer Antonio Bertolli began singing just as I took my seat. After his performance, Mr. Bertolli came over to the tables and introduced himself to the diners who were lucky enough to be there that evening. The owner said that if this musical entertainment proves popular, he plans to add more performance nights.

The atmosphere is warm and friendly, with comfortable seating and walls painted with pictures of the owner's favorite ingredient. The food at Sweet Oregano is tasty and authentically Italian, and my only complaints are that the service could have been faster and the menu is a bit limited. However, the restaurant has only been open for one month, and I look forward to seeing it grow.

Dear Dr. Kwon,

Your coauthor just e-mailed the remainder of your permission forms to me, and I now have all materials needed to begin the production phase for The Economics of Simple Living. A production schedule is enclosed; we are still on track for a July release. Please review and make note of important dates that require action from you and your coauthor. In the meantime, should you have any editorial questions, please contact me, as usual.

I look forward to your visit at the end of August, when we will have the kickoff of your promotional tour at San Aldo University's bookstore.

Best regards,

Three Passages

Attention Everyone: Group Photo This Saturday

Exciting news—Tasty Bites Magazine will be featuring our restaurant in an article about Dublin's best dining establishments! They have arranged for one of their photographers to photograph us on Saturday, 4 June, at 10:00 A.M., before preparations for the day begin.

All employees will be included, so please plan to come in a bit sooner than scheduled on Saturday morning wearing your uniform. The session will take 30 minutes.

We have achieved so much since we opened, and you should all be very proud of this recognition.

To: Herman Keel <hkeel@bentonsidebistro.net>
From: Hilary Seaton <hseaton@hbsphotography.com>
Date: Wednesday, 1 June
Subject: Saturday Photography Appointment

Dear Mr. Keel,

I am writing to confirm your group photography session at 10:00 A.M. on Saturday. As discussed, this photo shoot will take place at your restaurant, and I will photograph your staff along the wall in the main dining hall. You mentioned that your waitstaff will need to start getting ready for the day at 10:30 A.M., and that should not be a problem. The shoot should be finished by 10:30 A.M.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Otherwise I will see you on Saturday!

Bistro Pleases

Enter Bentonside Bistro any day for lunch or dinner, and you'll hear the sounds of clinking forks and chattering patrons. "That's the sound of happy diners," says Herman Keel, the restaurant's owner.

Opened two years ago, the bistro has exceeded expectations. The menu features traditional Irish dishes prepared by chef Deirdre Hanrahan. She notes, "We choose ingredients that are at the height of summer, fall, winter, and spring, and showcase these on our menu."

On a recent Wednesday afternoon, Jacinta Coelho, a visitor from Brazil, was dining at the bistro. "I can't get over the freshness and homemade taste!" exclaimed Ms. Coelho. "It's like the chef went outside and selected the ingredients just for me."

Bentonside Bistro is located at 1644 Bentonside Road and is open Tuesday through Saturday from 11:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. The interior is painted in bright shades of blue reminiscent of the ocean, with a rotating gallery of artwork adorning the walls. The staff is friendly and the delicious food is reasonably priced. Reservations are not required.
